2. Samuel 11 (verse by verse)

Below are some questions that could help us all reflect on today's sermon and to go deeper with God during our quiet time this week.

2 Samuel 11:1-4 And it came to pass, after the year was expired, at the time when kings go forth to battle, that David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried still at Jerusalem. And it came to pass in an evening, that David arose from off his bed, and walked upon the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw a woman washing herself; and the woman was very beautiful to look upon. And David sent and inquired after the woman. And one said, Is not this Bath-sheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite? And David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in unto him, and he lay with her; for she was purified from her uncleanness: and she returned unto her house.

- What signs can I identify in my life that often „precede sin“?
- Which of the warning signs from today's topic applies most to my life? What do I plan to do next time I see this warning sign in my life?
- Am I faithful to God in my everyday's life? Is there a connection between my unfaithfulness and my struggle with sin?
- What practical steps could I take to avoid „being bored“?
- How can I avoid „taking just one more little step towards sin“ when I feel tempted to do so next time?
- Do I truly believe in God's forgiveness and restoration, like He forgave and restored King David?
