Jesus' letter to Laodicea

Revelation 3:18-19 I counsel you to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that you may be rich; and white clothing, that you may be clothed, and that the shame of your nakedness does not appear; and anoint your eyes with eye salve, that you may see. As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

Below are some questions that could help us all reflect on today's sermon and to go deeper with God during our quiet time this week.

- If I look objectively at my works (lifestyle, priorities, etc): Do I see any indication of „being lukewarm“ in there?
- Have I ever used „worldly success“ as a way to measure my standing with God? Do I need to change the way I define how God sees me?
- Has „worldly success“ (in any form) ever caused me to get further away from God?
- How do I generally respond to God's correction? Do I see it as a sign of love? Or a sign of rejection?
- What practical step does God want me to take in response to today's message, in order to „not be (or become) lukewarm“?
