Schedule and Corona Virus

We thank God that some of the restrictions that had been imposed on us have been lifted. Therefore we will be able to meet again in person for our regular Sunday Services from next week, May 10th. However, we will not simply be able to go back to normal immediately, since some restrictions still apply. Therefore, we'll continue with the following regular schedule for the time being:

- We will have our regular Sunday Services in person again. But it will be shorter and the service order will also look different.
- We will send you a separate document with the special regulations we will all have to abide in for the time being. Most importantly are wearing a face mask all the time and sitting at least 2m away from anyone who is not a member of your family.
- Our Bible Study time on Thursdays as well as our fellowship time on Saturdays (Ladies) and Sundays (Guys) are still happening online for the moment.
- We'll send you more details throughout the week. But we can all prepare ourselves for a service in person next Sunday, May 10th.

Tell us your story

We're opening up our Sunday Services for personal stories (Testimonies, Prayer Requests, Stories about our lives,...) Please let Bernd know if there is anything you would like to share with the rest of us.

Teach us to number our days

Psalms 90:12 So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

Below are some questions that can help us all go deeper with God during our quiet time this week

- If I look back at the last seven days: Would I say that I have lived this week to the fullest, for God's Glory? In what aspect yes? In what aspect not?
- If I knew today that my life was coming to an end in one month: How would this affect the way I live my life today, tomorrow and this week?
- What role does „seeking God's mercy“ play in my everyday's life?
- Now that Aletheia is allowed to meet again as a church: What does God want me to do with/for other church members, that I have been postponing in the past?
