Schedule and Corona Virus

If you are following the news, you will probably have heard that the Corona numbers are increasing again in Germany. While Bavaria is still doing relatively well, the virus is rapidly spreading again in other parts of Germany.

We are thankful that we can meet, but are also reminded that wordly speaking, everything is still very fragile.

We want to remind everyone to keep the rules of social distancing here at Aletheia (and in all our lives). Please wash and sanitize your hands when you arrive, wear a face mask, avoid physical touches and try to keep at least 1.5m apart from each other at all times.

Tell us your story

We're opening up our Sunday Services for personal stories (Testimonies, Prayer Requests, Stories about our lives,...) Please let Bernd know if there is anything you would like to share with the rest of us.

Ruth and Naomi: Part 2

Ruth 4:14-15 And the women said unto Naomi, Blessed be the LORD, who has not left you this day without a kinsman, that his name may be famous in Israel. And he shall be unto you a restorer of your life, and a nourisher of your old age: for your daughter-in-law, who loves you, who is better to you than seven sons, has borne him.

Below are some questions that can help us all go deeper with God during our quiet time this week

- Am I struggling with seeing how my life is making a difference for God's Glory? What can I learn from Naomi and Ruth to simply be Faithful in what I am already doing?
- In which part of my own life is God asking me to be more Faithful to Him?
- How can I be more Faithful to God in the midst of the struggles that I am currently facing?
- What can I learn about God's character when reading the story of Ruth?
- What can I learn about how God sees me when studying Boaz' life?
