Schedule and Corona Virus

If you are following the news, you will probably have heard that the Corona numbers are rising quickly all over Germany again. Some rules have tightened again, and another lockdown of some form seems inevitable.

We are thankful that we still have permission to meet as a church, but are also reminded that worldly speaking, everything is still very fragile.

We want to remind everyone to keep the rules of social distancing here at Aletheia (and in all our lives). Please wash and sanitize your hands when you arrive, wear a face mask, avoid physical touches and try to keep at least 1.5m apart from each other at all times.

Thank you for protecting yourself and each other here at Aletheia.

Inspire Women's Conference

*Saturday, Nov. 14th, 09:30am—4pm. TIME to be inspired by God!
Powerful teaching targeted to Women by women, time of worship and fellowship!*

Two types of discipline

John 8:10-11 When Jesus had lifted himself up, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those your accusers? has no man condemned you? She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn you: go, and sin no more.

Below are some questions that can help us all go deeper with God during our quiet time this week

- Before today's sermon: What was my view on „God's discipline“? Did I see it as a blessing or as a curse?
- When was I disciplined or corrected me in a godly way? How did that affect my life and/or my view of God?
- In what area(s) of my life do I currently feel God's conviction? In what area(s) do I currently feel satan's condemnation?
- When was I disciplined or corrected in an ungodly way? How did that affect my life and/or my view of God?
- Are there areas in my life where I still hear the accusing and condemning voice from satan? What does Jesus want me to do so He will silence those voices?
- Is there still guilt and shame in my life for past sins? What does Jesus want me to do so that He will restore me?
