Schedule and Corona Virus

We are thankful that we still have permission to meet as a church, even though Germany is going through another lockdown right now.

We want to remind everyone to keep the rules of social distancing here at Aletheia (and in all our lives). Please wash and sanitize your hands when you arrive, wear a face mask, avoid physical touches and try to keep at least 1.5m apart from each other at all times.

Also, we fully understand if you prefer not coming in person to Aletheia right now. If that is you, all sermons will be live streamed every Sunday.

Thank you for protecting yourself and each other here at Aletheia.

Tell us your story

We're opening up our Sunday Services for personal stories (Testimonies, Prayer Requests, Stories about our lives,...) Please let Bernd know if there is anything you would like to share with the rest of us.

Being Galatian or being Abraham?

Galatians 3:6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.

Below are some questions that can help us all go deeper with God during our quiet time this week

- Before today's sermon: What was my approach to „receiving God's blessings“: Did I fully believe that I already have everything I need? Or did I try to earn something He is already offering me? Why?
- What role does „getting something from God“ play in my walk with God? What role does „gratitude“ play in my walk with God?
- In what area in my life would I have to admit I'm more like the Galatians, not like Abraham?
- The Galatian church started out right with Jesus, but then slid back into „trusting the law“: How did my walk with God change over time? Did I also slide back into „trusting my performance“ in some areas of my life?
- In what area of my life have I tried to „earn my own healing“ in some form? How does God want me to change my approach?
