Schedule and Corona Virus

We are thankful that we still have permission to meet as a church, even though Germany is going through another lockdown right now.

We want to remind everyone to keep the rules of social distancing here at Aletheia (and in all our lives). Please wash and sanitize your hands when you arrive, wear a face mask, avoid physical touches and try to keep at least 1.5m apart from each other at all times.

Also, we are required to wear FFP2 masks at our services as well. Community masks are no longer sufficient!

Also, we fully understand if you prefer not coming in person to Aletheia right now. If that is you, all sermons will be live streamed every Sunday.

Thank you for protecting yourself and each other here at Aletheia.

Tell us your story

We're opening up our Sunday Services for personal stories (Testimonies, Prayer Requests, Stories about our lives,...) Please let Bernd know if there is anything you would like to share with the rest of us.

Being little children

Luke 18:17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein.

Below are some questions that can help us all go deeper with God during our quiet time this week

- When looking back at my own childhood: What „good thing“ have I lost?
- What is my general attitude towards children (not my own)? Do I see them as „someone I can learn something from“? Do I see children as a source of inspiration? Or do I see them as an annoyance or distraction? Why?
- When I think about a little child that I know: What can I learn from him/her about his/her heart?
- Would I currently describe my relationship with God like a relationship between a child and a parent? Why or why not?
- What example(s) from today's sermon about „having a child like heart“ spoke to me? How does God want me to change my heart attitude to be more like a little child?
