Schedule and Corona Virus

We are thankful that we still have permission to meet as a church, even though Germany is going through another lockdown right now.

We want to remind everyone to keep the rules of social distancing here at Aletheia (and in all our lives). Please wash and sanitize your hands when you arrive, wear a face mask, avoid physical touches and try to keep at least 1.5m distance from each other at all times.

Also, we are required to wear FFP2 masks at our services as well. Community masks are no longer sufficient!

At the same time, we fully understand if you prefer not coming to Aletheia in person right now. You can listen to the live stream of the sermon every Sunday instead.

Thank you for protecting yourself and each other here at Aletheia.

Mid-Year Budget Review Meeting

Monday, April 12th, 7:30pm online.

Tell us your story

We're opening up our Sunday Services for personal stories (Testimonies, Prayer Requests, Stories about our lives,...) Please let Bernd know if there is anything you would like to share with the rest of us.

The Other Side of Forgiveness

Matthew 18:33 Shouldst not thou also have had compassion on thy fellowservant, even as I had pity on thee?

Below are some questions that can help us all go deeper with God during our quiet time this week

- Do I generally see the connection between „receiving forgiveness from God“ and „extending forgiveness to others“? Or do I see these two topics separately?
- Would I say that I am generally a forgiving person? What does this say about my Faith and my relationship with God?
- Would people around me say that I am a forgiving person? In what concrete situations did I express my forgiveness or the lack of it?
- Have I ever truly personally encountered God's forgiveness? Do I want to seek God for such an encounter?
- Have I experienced a shift in my ability to forgive others since I became a Christian? What does that say about my Faith?
- Is there still unforgiveness towards my parents in my heart?
- What unforgiveness am I still dealing with? What is the root issue behind my unforgiveness?
