Schedule and Corona Virus

We are thankful that we still have permission to meet as a church, even though Germany is going through another lockdown right now.

We want to remind everyone to keep the rules of social distancing here at Aletheia (and in all our lives). Please wash and sanitize your hands when you arrive, wear a face mask, avoid physical touches and try to keep at least 1.5m distance from each other at all times.

Also, we are required to wear FFP2 masks at our services as well. Community masks are no longer sufficient!

At the same time, we fully understand if you prefer not coming to Aletheia in person right now. You can listen to the live stream of the sermon every Sunday instead.

Thank you for protecting yourself and each other here at Aletheia.

Explorer Group starting in the fall

We're planning to start an Explorer Group on Saturday, October 23rd. Details to come.

A time for everything

Ecclesiastes 3:1 To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven

Below are some questions that can help us all go deeper with God during our quiet time this week

- What kind of transitions have I gone through in my life so far? Have these transitions brought me closer to God or further away from Him?
- What positive lessons have I learned from transitions I went through before?
- How do I see seasons with „negative feelings“? Do I embrace them as a season from God? Or do I see them as a season I just have to endure until „better times are coming again“?
- Have I ever faced opposition from other Christians for following the guidance of the Holy Spirit? How did that affect my obedience?
- How can I see transitions from a more Godly perspective in the future?
