Helping our refugees

Our refugee family has arrived and they are now temporarily staying at the Aletheia place. It's wonderful that we can share the place we have to help others. But they also need other help, like food, money and entertainment.

Please pray about whether, and if yes, how God wants you to help this family while they are staying with us.

Aletheia Giving

For the last two years we have been supporting „Kick It“ financially. We did plan on also helping out practically, but due to Corona that hasn't really happened yet.

Our promised commitment to Kick It ends in June. We would like everyone to start thinking and praying about whether we want to continue supporting Kick It another year, or whether there is another organization we want to support instead.

Easter: Reconciliation

Romans 5:8-10 But God commends his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.

Below are some questions that can help us all go deeper with God during our quiet time this week

- What does it mean to me that I am reconciled with God?
- In what aspects do I struggle believing that I am fully reconciled to God?
- Do I still try to earn things from God that God already wants to give me in full? Is there a lack of Faith in my complete reconciliation behind my striving?
- Have I ever experienced how God reconciled relationships with others?
- What relationship does God want to restore in my life in this season?
