Repentance in Prayer

Matthew 6:12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

- What role does repentance currently play in my prayer life? Is it balanced with other types of prayer? Does God want me to increase this aspect of prayer in comparison to other types of prayer?
- Do I see the seriousness of my sin? Do I show the kind of desperation David showed? Or is there an aspect of self-righteousness in me that hinders me from praying the way David prayed?
- Do I know God enough to be certain of His forgiveness?
- Do I tend to focus on „other things“ in my repentance that are not part of Psalm 51? Are these elements of repentance even Biblical?
- Can I find elements of David’s Prayer that are not part of my prayer life? Does God want me to add these elements to my regular prayer life?
- How does God want me to adjust my „repentance prayer life“ in response to today’s sermon?
